December 20, 1922.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Carlisle Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its floating plant for the canning and salting of salmon for commercial purposes in Bristol Bay near ship's anchorage, within Zone Two of the Bristol Bay district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate thirty-six (36) gill-net boats from the said floating cannery, each boat carrying not to exceed 200 fathoms of gill net. The use of motor gill-net boats will be permitted in the season of 1923, but not thereafter. Application for the use of purse-seine boats is disallowed in view of the general regulation prohibiting the use of purse seines within the district.
2. That in view of this limitation on apparatus no case limit is set on the pack of this cannery for the season of 1923.
3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOVER.
